FLASHCARD GAMES:

- What's Missing: Lay out 10 flashcards on the floor. After going over them, ask the players to close their eyes. Remove one card. The players open their eyes and say which card is missing. Play with all of the flashcards to make the game more difficult.
- Guess the Flashcard: Start by placing the flashcards on the ground. One person begins to describe a flashcard. For example, "This dinosaur used to live in Africa. This dinosaur used to eat meat because it was a carnivore." The other player must guess which dinosaur is being described.
- Herbivore or Carnivore: Place toy dinosaurs or the flashcards on the ground. Make sentences to describe the dinosaurs using the vocabulary of carnivore or herbivore to sort the dinosaur. The other player must guess how many herbivores/carnivores there is/there are. Then the player must make a sentence using the grammar "used to". For example, "This CHALLENGE: Have an adult record your challenge and send it to your Casita manager.

Can you say a sentence using the grammar there is or there are talking about your dinosaur flashcards? If you know any fun facts about your dinosaur, tell us!
